WARNER WINS CLOSE AT VAN CORTLAND PARK

Youngster Will Play Patterson in Finals for Golf

Cup.

WAN CORTLAND, N. T., Aug. B .-Semi-finals began to-day in the greater New York golf championship at Van Cortland Park under rather unfavorshie conditions. The humidity was close the limit of endurance, making the limit of endurance, making stogress slow and wearsome.

The title division lies between W. D. title division lies between W. D. title division in the lower. Wagering favored Patterson as a finalist, also as winner. Teddy Warner being a plucky prompeter, the gallery was inclined to follow him, but swung between the two matches. Several showers fell before noon, making the greens heavy.

Warner beat Harrison 1 up 19 holes.

drop back, losing the sixth, halving the esventh and losing the eighth which squared matters. By winning the ninth where Harrison took his secon six, War-ner started frome 1 up.

The tenth was haived and Warner captured the next two, leaving him 3 up, his best showing. Them he lost the 12th while the next three were halved in fours. At the 17th Warner taid his rival stymie and had not Harrison eatly pitched over it, the contest would bave ended there.

Then Warner received a penalty stroke the 18th for rolling his club in the road, which technicality causel endless discussion. Warner won on the 19th. through his beautiful brassle second stroke of 225 yards, which laid him three feet from the cup.

In. 4 3 4 4 5 4 4 4 4-36-77 Bye holes played. From the start Patterson outclassed Methyen, the latter halving three and Methyen, the latter halving three and winning two holes on the outward journey. After being twice 3 up Patterson turned home 2 up. He halved the touth and eleventh, and then gobbled three straight, which ended the match, playing out the bye holes. Patterson made a 70, equalling the par of the course, while Methyen was seven strikes more. The formers 33 in was exceedingly fast, and naturally he was a strong favorite for the title winner among the increasing afternoon gallery.

In the lower half of the consolation division J. H. Buckbee bent F. D. Brengei 5 up and 3 to go. The upper half was between Walter Purcell of left handed note and H. B. Martin.
